no price escalations during the tenure of the contract. Financial quotes must be submitted in the prescribed format only

Payment Terms:-

- Payment Terms: Payment will be made one month after the submission of the original bill.
- GST, as applicable, should be indicated, and a copy of the GST registration must be submitted along with your tender.
- Price Escalation: No request or claim for price escalation on any grounds shall be entertained during the tenure of the contract. However, any enhancement in the minimum wage rates, if notified by the State Government during the contract period, may be considered

Scope of Work:

- Tenders are required to supply stationery printing as per the details and brands specified in the tender form enclosed as Annexure – III.
- The delivery of items will be carried out at the EDII campus at the agency's cost.
- The quality of printing should be of a good standard and meet the specified requirements. In case it is found that the services do not meet the required standards or ordered specifications, the Institute reserves the right to take action such as termination of the contract, forfeiture of the performance security, and blacklisting the firm.
- The bidder shall be solely responsible for any damage or loss of items caused by the contractor or any of its representatives during the execution of the contract. The Institute shall not be liable for any compensation in this regard.
- All stationery items supplied must meet the following quality standards:
 - a. Paper must be of good quality with proper weight and should be free from defects such as tears, creases, or blemishes.
 - b. Printing on all items must be clear, aligned, and in the specified color palette, with a minimum resolution as per the requirements.
 - c. Envelopes must be properly sealed, with consistent flap adhesion and meet the appropriate size specifications.
 - d. All items must be packaged in a manner that protects them from damage during delivery.
 - e. The supplier must provide quality certificates upon request, verifying compliance with the stated standards.
- The items quoted are of standard quality and workmanship
- Bidders may be asked to provide samples of the items quoted, which should be of good quality and match the sample provided.
- This is an annual maintenance/service/rate contract, with uniform rates applicable for the entire year.
- Every page of the document must be sealed and signed by the Competent Authority
- Branded products must be delivered to the Institute as per the specified requirements

- Tenderers will be required to supply printed stationery along with printed matter as per the specifications provided by the Institute and the samples attached with this quotation form.
 - a. Item rates should be submitted on the form attached as Annexure III. A sample of each stationery item, along with printed matter, is enclosed for perusal.
 - b. The Institute reserves the right to reject any printed stationery item that deviates from the brands/specifications specified in the tender

Quality Assurance:

- The successful bidder is fully responsible for the quality of the supplied items.
- In the event of any user complaint regarding the quality of the supplied items, the bidder must replace the defective item at no additional cost within the same day or by the next working day.
- If more than two users report quality issues with the same product within a short period, the Institute will seek justification from the bidder. Failure to provide a valid justification will result in a warning for the first occurrence.
- Any subsequent instance of poor quality will lead to the immediate termination of the contract if it is determined that the bidder has deliberately compromised on quality

Responsibility of the Bidder

- Information, materials, etc., borrowed by the bidders, if any, shall remain the property of EDII and may be provided by EDII solely for the execution of this contract. All such borrowed materials shall be the sole property of EDII and must be returned to EDII after the submission of the bids.
- Please quote your rates exactly as per our inquiry.
- Technical details, literature, operation manuals, etc., must be provided with the technical bid.
- The quotations must be submitted along with copies of the Certificate of Authorized Dealership.

Relationship with Employee:

Every bidder should, at the time of submission of the bid, provide a declaration as follows:

"If any employee of the tendering Institute or his/her relative, as defined in Section 2(77) of the Companies Act, 2013, holds 10% or more shareholding in the bidding Institute/firm, the tendering Institute will not engage with such firm. Therefore, the tenderer must specifically disclose this fact in their technical bid. Non-disclosure of such information will result in immediate disqualification of the tenderer from further dealings with the tendering Institute."

Performance Assessment

If, during the execution of the work, the following problems were found, then a penalty of 02% of the Contract value per week (subject to a maximum of 05%) may be imposed by the Institute

- Quality of deliverables is not up to the mark (till the quality is improved to the required extent)
- Delays in deliverables
- Not assigning adequate resources on time
- Not engaging resources on a dedicated basis when required

- Assigning resources that do not meet the client's requirements as per the approved time schedule or the quality of deliverables.

Termination of Contract:

In case the bidder fails to deliver the services within the contractual period, the Institute shall exercise its discretionary power to:

- a) Recover, from the supplier as agreed, by way of the penalty clause mentioned above; or
- b) Avail the service elsewhere after giving due notice to the successful bidder, at the account and risk of the unsuccessful bidder, without canceling the contract; or
- c) Cancel the contract.
- d) The Institute reserves the right to terminate the contract if the services are found unsatisfactory, by giving 15 days' notice. If the agency wishes to terminate the contract, it must provide 15 days' written notice, along with reasons for the termination.
- e) The agreement is liable to be terminated due to non-performance, deviation from the terms and conditions of the contract, non-payment of remuneration to employed persons, and non-payment of statutory dues. The Institute will bear no liability for the non-payment of remuneration to the personnel employed by the Security Service Provider or the outstanding statutory dues to statutory authorities. If any loss or damage is caused to the Institute by the deployed personnel, the same shall be recovered from the unpaid bills or adjusted from the Performance Security Deposit.

In the event of risk purchase of services of a similar description, the opinion of the Institute shall be final. If action is taken under clause (a) or (b), the successful bidder shall be liable to pay for any loss that the Institute may sustain on account of this, but the successful bidder shall not be entitled to any savings on such services made against default.

Further, the Institute reserves the right to terminate the contract (i.e., work order/agreement/purchase order) at any time, without assigning any reasons, by giving a notice period of one month from the date of termination of the contract. The Institute will not be responsible for any compensations, damages, or losses whatsoever on account of such termination of the contract.

Proposal Ownership

The bid and all supporting documentation submitted by the bidders shall become the property of EDII, and it reserves the right to accept or reject any request made by any bidder to return or destroy the bid and accompanying documentation.

Indemnity

The selected bidder shall indemnify, protect, and hold EDII and its personnel harmless against all claims, losses, costs, damages, expenses, actions, suits, and other proceedings.

Confidentiality of tender submissions:

The contractor shall treat and maintain the Employer's confidential information as "Confidential Information" and handle it with the utmost care.

Force Majeure

"Force Majeure" refers to an event beyond the control of the selected bidder, not involving the vendor's fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may include, but are not limited to, acts of God or public enemy, acts of the Government of India in their sovereign capacity, acts of war, fire, floods, strikes, lock-outs, and freight embargoes.

If a Force Majeure situation arises, the selected bidder shall promptly notify EDII in writing of such conditions and the cause thereof within 30 calendar days. In such cases, the time for performance shall be extended by a period not less than the duration of the delay. If the delay continues beyond a period of three months, EDII and the selected bidder shall consult with each other in an effort to find a solution to the problem.

GST Compliance:

The Vendor* hereby undertakes to comply with all applicable GST rules and regulations, specifically but not limited to the GST compliance requirements as stated below. The Vendor also agrees that any loss on account of GST, including the loss of input tax credit (ITC) and any interest and/or penalty thereon, if arising due to non-compliance with GST laws and rules/regulations by the Vendor, shall be borne solely by the Vendor. Under such circumstances, EDII shall have the right to recover the said amount from the next bill payment or any future payment due to the Vendor. The Vendor hereby authorizes the bank to recover such amounts from the Vendor's account maintained with EDII and/or from any payment due from EDII.

*The term "Vendor" includes suppliers, service providers, landlords, etc., and may be suitably modified as per the respective agreement.

- The Vendor hereby undertakes the timely and proper filing of GSTR-1 and GSTR-3B returns as per GST rules and regulations, covering the invoices raised on EDII, so that EDII may avail of input tax credits (ITC) based on the matching of corresponding vendor invoices with GSTR-2B.
- The Vendor also agrees that if the Vendor's GSTIN is suspended or canceled by the GST authority, resulting in ITC loss for EDII, the Vendor shall be liable to reimburse such loss.
- The Vendor agrees that all payments due from EDII shall be linked to the proper discharge of tax liability by the Vendor within statutory time periods. In case of any disputes due to non-matching of GST credit, the Vendor shall resolve the same within 90 (ninety) days of the invoice date, failing which EDII/the bank shall have the right to recover the GST paid from the Vendor.
- The Vendor agrees that if the Vendor falls under the applicability of E-invoice provisions, the invoice shared with EDII should mandatorily be an E-invoice. If the Vendor is below the E-invoice applicability limits, the Vendor should provide a declaration for the same and also bear the responsibility to inform EDII as and when E-invoice provisions become applicable. Any loss of ITC to EDII due to non-compliance with E-invoice provisions shall be borne by the Vendor.
- The Vendor shall provide invoices, debit notes, and credit notes in accordance with the time of supply provisions to enable EDII to avail ITC in a timely manner, on or before the stipulated time period. All necessary adjustment entries (credit notes, debit notes) shall be made before October 31 of the succeeding financial year.
- Wherever applicable, EDII has the right to deduct 'tax deducted at source' at the rate prescribed under the applicable law and remit the same to the relevant tax authorities.
- Where the supply of goods/services is liable to GST under the reverse charge mechanism, the Vendor must clearly mention the category under which it has been registered and must indicate that “the liability of payment of GST is on the Recipient of Service.”

- Any GST liability arising on the Vendor due to contravention of the provisions of GST regulations shall be borne by the Vendor itself, and EDII shall not be liable for compensating the same.

Dispute Resolution

The parties shall use their best efforts to amicably settle all disputes arising out of or in connection with the tender documents in the following manner:

- The party raising a dispute shall address a notice to the other party, requesting an amicable settlement of the dispute within 15 days of receipt of the notice.
- The matter will be referred for negotiation between the Director General or any competent authority of the Institute and the Bidder. The matter shall then be resolved by them.
- The parties agree that any dispute between them that cannot be settled by negotiation, as described above, may be resolved by arbitration. Such a dispute may be submitted by either party to arbitration within 15 days of the failure of negotiations. Arbitration shall be held in Gandhinagar, Gujarat, India, before a sole arbitrator appointed mutually by the parties. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, or any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted in the English language. The arbitration award shall be final, conclusive, and binding upon the parties. Each party shall bear the cost of preparing and presenting its case, and the cost of arbitration, including fees and expenses of the arbitrators, shall be shared equally by the parties unless the award otherwise provides.

General Terms & Conditions:

- Bid Submission Study: Bidders are advised to carefully review the tender document before submitting their bids. By submitting a bid, the bidder confirms that they have fully understood the terms, conditions, and implications of the document.
- Site Visit: Bidders are encouraged to visit the site where the work will be carried out. At their own expense, they should assess the asset conditions, location, climate, utilities, access, applicable laws, and any other relevant factors. Any discrepancies or ambiguities found in the documents should be clarified with the Institute before submission.
- The service provider shall attend to and resolve any complaints from the Institute within 24 hours. Additionally, the service provider shall be required to visit the Institute premises twice a month to address any service-related issues
- Confidentiality and Professionalism: The Agency is required to follow professional ethics and comply with regulatory rules. Confidentiality must be maintained in all matters that could harm the Institute's interests or reputation.
- Timeframe: Time is of the essence. The work must be completed within the time schedule specified in the Tender's control sheet.
- Location and Site Details: Bidders should ascertain the size, condition, and available areas for their use, as well as other details that may affect the tender.

- Tender Documentation: The bidder must complete all sections of the annexed Form of Tender, Schedules, and Bill of Quantities with the requested prices and details. All pages of the documents should be signed and dated.
- Rate Discrepancies: Rates should be filled in both figures and words. In case of discrepancies between the two, the rate in words will prevail.
- Document Integrity: The Tender Form and its attachments must remain intact. Alterations or mutilations of the documents, other than completing the required sections, are not permitted. Any changes must be made via a covering letter or properly signed corrections.
- Strict Adherence to Specifications: Bidders must quote as per the approved makes/models listed in the price bid. Failure to do so may result in the bid being rejected.
- Payment Terms: Payments will be made one month after the submission of the bill, and the quoted rates should include all taxes, including GST. A copy of the GST registration document must be submitted with the offer.
- Tax Responsibilities: The bidder shall be responsible for paying any applicable taxes, duties, fees, and other charges under relevant laws.
- Communication During Bidding: From the time the bids are opened until the contract is awarded, bidders should refrain from contacting the employer regarding their bids. Any efforts to influence the evaluation process may lead to disqualification.
- Late Submissions: Any bids received after the submission deadline will be rejected.
- Cost of Bid Preparation: The bidder is responsible for all costs associated with the preparation and submission of their bid.
- Right to Reject: The Institute reserves the right to reject any or all bids, and is not obligated to accept the lowest bid. The Institute may also reissue the tender without consent from the bidders.
- Subcontracting: The successful bidder cannot subcontract the work without prior approval from the Institute. Unauthorized subcontracting may result in contract termination.
- Contract Rate Stability: The rates quoted by the bidder will remain fixed throughout the duration of the contract. No price adjustments will be allowed.
- No Liability for Bidding Errors: The Institute does not accept any liability for errors arising from the bidder's reliance on any part of the tender.
- Tampered Documents: Any tampering or modification of the tender documents (especially the price bid template) will result in immediate rejection of the bid and forfeiture of the Earnest Money Deposit (EMD).
- Amendments to Tender: Any amendments to the tender will be published on the Institute's website. No newspaper notices will be issued.
- Website Monitoring: Bidders should regularly check the Institute's website for any corrigendum, addendum, or amendments, particularly within the last three days before the submission deadline.
- Business Relationships: No bidder who has a direct business relationship (e.g., family members, partners) with another bidder may submit separate bids for the same contract. Such bids will be rejected.
- Multiple Awards: The Institute reserves the right to award the contract to multiple bidders or cancel the tender at its discretion.
- No Email Bids: The Institute will not accept bids submitted via email.
- Arbitration: Any disputes will be referred to a sole arbitrator appointed by the Director-General, and the arbitration will be conducted in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding.

- Right to Cancel or Award Work: The Institute reserves the right to cancel the tender, award work to one or more bidders, or reissue the tender without any obligation to accept the lowest bid.
- Jurisdiction: Any legal matters related to this contract will be governed by the laws of Gandhinagar, Gujarat
